Important Information

The student tuition fees as published are subject to change given individual circumstances at enrolment.

* There may be additional costs when studying this course. It is difficult to be precise about what these might be as each student will have different expectations and requirements. Additional costs can include things like specialised apparel, equipment hire, training props, and incidentals. This will be provided to you directly by NICA and is excluded from the tuition fees stated above

 There may be additional costs for Face to Face delivered training for excursions, workshops or performance events. We are unable to be precise about the amount for these as pricing is subject to change.

If you are a government subsidised student, you may be entitled to a concession on your tuition fee if you meet additional eligibility criteria. The concession tuition fee must be no more than 20% of the standard tuition fee. Tuition fees are waived or eligible Skills First students who are Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander, referred under the Youth Access Initiative, residing at the Judy Lazarus Transition Centre, or young people on community-based order.
